The Wish

Music by Deleon/Carlos/Charles/Deco

Lyrics by F.G.Dillenburg

Falling pieces moving shadows
It's raining over the seas
Seas of darkness
Gods ashamed
The Earth full of disease

I can see the light
Can You fell inside?

It's the last day of the thrones
An ocean of despair
Saturn's sign on the sky
The guardian is alone

I can see the might
Can You fell inside?

I throw my soul across the world waiting for your fall
The crib of fools grows excessively feeding animals

I can see the might
Can You fell inside?

Can't You feel the stream?
Empty words filling money's temple lurking fools out there
Say: He's the savior!
Predator of your mind
Feeding madness, sharing sadness
Can't You fell inside?

Kill the magic of your soul, nail your hands
Dream the dream of paradise waiting for the end

You're drifting in a sorrow place but You can stand up alone
Forge your life by moonlight fighting hard and strong

Oh, do You have just great sins?
Against the wall You're feeling small
You're guilty in your heart
But keep the faith, support your pray
To the holy ghosts of wars
Holy ghosts of wars

Ilusions of tomorrow's freedom
Fill up your empty will Satisfaction of vain desires
It's a men's disease

Blood of Cain

Music by Deleon/Carlos/Charles/Deco

Lyrics by F.G.Dillenburg

©2003 by Das Reich

Beyond the time You saw men falling in disgrace
Your father renegade is the shadow on your face
All the way is dark an You will walk alone
The dark and cold, the suffer will make You stronger

Blood of Cain
God of Pain

Strange hunger is profusion of passion and hate
Big herd of human being nothing has more taste
Men's hunters falling in your neck with silver blades
Your live vanishing in the hand of gods

Blood of Cain
God of Pain

You are close now
side by side with my soul
You are close now feeling my heart
My dead heart the ashes of your past

Out of this world You will never find peace
Out of this pain You will never have your pray
Nowhere to run no place will be safe to stay
Ripping your humanity off is the only way

Blood of Cain
God of Pain
